

Republican leaders are hurrying at an accelerated pace.

"The increase in the number of office-holders is likewise enormous. The appropriations in the army and navy alone show an increase of $120,000,000 a year over the appropriations of eleven years ago. What excuse can be given for the trebling of the appropriations for army and navy? No nation is unfriendly to the United States; no internal causes justify the increase.

Intimate With Tax Eaters.
There are two reasons why the Republican leaders are less careful of expenditures than the Democrats. The first is to be found in the fact that the Republican leaders are more intimately associated with the tax-eaters than with the tax-payers.

"The second reason is to be found in the fact that the Republican leaders have been representing taxation as a blessing, and they naturally want to give the people as much of the blessing as possible. The Democratic party, believing that a tax is a necessary evil, endeavors to limit the tax to the actual needs of the government economically administered.

One President Pick Next.

"The present campaign presents another tendency of the Republican party, namely, to substitute a presidential succession for the Democratic plan of popular selection. The President felt it his duty to select a Republican nominee, and having reached the conclusion that he ought to select such a nominee, he brought the influence of his great office to bear in behalf of the candidate of his personal choice, and is now using his influence to secure the election of the candidate whom he assisted in nominating.

"If Mr. Roosevelt can pick out the Republican candidate this year, and then use the prestige of his office and the influence of the army of office-holders to elect him, may not Mr. Taft pick out a successor and elect him, so on from administration to administration? The time to correct this abuse and to stop this tendency is now.

Centralization and Imperialism.
The third dangerous tendency of the Republican party is towards centralization. Its leaders are inclined to overlook State lines and to advocate legislation and administrative methods which enlarge the power of the central government. The safety of the Union depends upon the preservation of the distinction drawn in the Constitution between State and nation. The nation has its delegated powers; the State its reserved powers. Only by the recognition of this division can the balance between State and nation be maintained.

Fourth. In its advocacy of imperialism the Republican party tends to ignore all constitutional restraints, for it administers a government in the Philippine Islands without constitutional limitations. The ignoring of the Constitution in dealing with the Philippines tends to the weakening of the Constitution at home, and tends also to disregard of constitutional principles of government.

Tendency to Socialism.
The fifth Republican tendency to which I call your attention is the tendency towards socialism. The Republican party is loud in its denunciation of socialism. But it is constantly feeding and augmenting the socialist spirit. It permits abuses which cast an odium upon individualism and furnish argument to the Socialists. It cultivates the idea that the government must act as a wet nurse for favored industries instead of cultivating industrial independence and a spirit of self-reliance.

"In its latest national platform it boldly declares that reasonable profits should be guaranteed to the protected industries. It defends the principle of monopoly on the theory that competition is hurtful. In taking this position, it supports the main contention of the Socialists.

"The Democratic party has been called a socialist party, and I have been denounced as a Socialist. I contend that the Republican party, not the Democratic party, is aiding the socialist party, and this is evidenced from the fact that the Socialist leaders prefer Republican success to Democratic success. They fear that Democratic reforms will retard socialism, and they believe that Republican abuses can be used to arouse opposition to the entire competitive system. The Democratic party believes that the Socialist is honest, but mistaken. The Democratic party would argue with the Socialist, while the Republican party denounces him; but the Democratic party would remove the spirit of unrest and disquiet by eliminating the abuses that are the foundation of unrest and discontent."

Mr. Bryan spent the night at the home of Mr. Milbert Cary, and will

..Manchester News..

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch.
No. 1102 Hull Street.
There were no developments in the Water Department yesterday, neither former Superintendent Sharpe nor Clerk Morton being inclined to say anything about the situation. The Board of Water Commissioners will meet tonight at 8 o'clock, when they will endeavor to fill the vacancies created by the resignation of the superintendent and his clerk.

The grand jury will take up the case on Monday, and it was said last night that matters of a sensational nature would develop at the hearing on Monday which might implicate others. At all events the commission will attempt to fill the vacancies at the meeting tonight.

The Rowley Distillery Company. of Raleigh, N. C., through its representative, appeared before the Council Committee on Land and Buildings last night. After hearing him the committee agreed to permit the company to occupy the building formerly occupied by Frank Brothers, the shirt manufacturers. The Franks have left Manchester, and the building which they erected for their factory is idle. The committee believes that any manufacturing plant that comes here is that much to the good of the city.

The building will be put in shape at once. Mr. George Hooker, of North Carolina, who was at the meeting, said about thirty people would be employed.

There was nothing doing in the Police Department last night. The station house was empty, although the police were busy patrolling the streets.

"This city looks good to me," said

Captain Lipscomb. "We go a week sometimes without making an arrest, but that does not mean that we are not on our job. We feel that there is so little doing here now that we do not think consolidation with Richmond would do us any good."

To Discuss Consolidation.
At the meeting of the Business Men's Association on Monday night the question of annexation and a free bridge will be fully discussed, and it looks like a full agreement on the proposition of consolidation, which will bring bridges along with it.

Promises a Surprise.
Last night Mr. Hammond Fisher, an employee of the Water Department, stated that he had resigned his position. The investigation which has been completed by the Water Commissioners did not show anything against Mr. Fisher, and he said that he would spring some surprises before the grand jury on Monday.

To Try Green Soon.
Judge Watson, of the Circuit Court of Chesterfield, has decided to call the case of the negro Green on September 23th. Green attempted to assault a young girl in Chesterfield about a week ago. He has confessed, and it will be up to the jury to fix his punishment. He may go to the electric chair, or he may, on account of his youthful age, get time in the penitentiary.

Church Notes.
At Asbury Church Sunday the pastor, Rev. W. G. Birch, will preach at both services. His subject in the morning will be "Two Revelations," and at night a special sermon to rail-ward men. All railroad men are cordially invited to be present. The choir, which has been increased to sixteen in number, will render special music at both services. At night the choir will sing "Life's Railway to Heaven." "Praise Ye the Lord." All are invited to be present.
